

ARVI

South coast of Crete

- The village of Arvi is a fishing village with a small port, supermarket, bars, taverns, hotels, pharmacy, kiosk for tobacco, newspapers.
- All the different sandy and pebbles beaches of its surroundings, some even naturist, are reachable within a short driving distance and almost all are without umbrellas and deck chairs.
- Arvi is 60 Km from our Venerato village and 70 Km from Heraklion International Airport.

Places of interest in Arvi:

Agios Antonios Monastery, Arvi gorges, banana plantations.

