WHISKY

LAPHROIAG 10 Years

Euro 12

Laphroaig – Islay Island (since 1815)

The Laphroaig 10-year-old single malt whisky is distilled on the island of Islay, Scotland.

The barley malt is dried over peat fires sourced exclusively from Islay, giving this distinctive whisky its unique and unmistakable character.

The result is a whisky with a smoky flavour and a surprisingly sweet balance.

Taste: full-bodied and sweet, with salty and peaty notes, vanilla, oak and spices.

Aroma: smoky peat notes with iodine, sweet vanilla and hints of liquorice.

Finish: long and persistent.

(100% single malt) 40% vol.

LAGAVULIN 8 Years

Euro 12

Lagavulin – Islay Island (since 1816)

Lagavulin 8-year-old is a single malt whisky distilled on the island of Islay, Scotland.

It undergoes the slowest distillation process of all Islay single malts (5 hours for the first distillation and 9 hours for the second), resulting in a whisky of remarkable roundness with soft, warm notes.

Taste: particularly oily, with notes of wood smoke, honey, tobacco and pepper, complemented by hints of dark chocolate.

Aroma: fresh and clean, with black pepper, dark chocolate, aromatic smoke and lemon zest.

Finish: good persistence.

(100% single malt ) 48% vol.
